

TRACK 2 PROGRAMME

WED, July 27

Session 5	Title of the session: Everyday Life and Public Spaces Chair: Sabine Knierbein
Time: 10.00-11.30	Presenter's name	Presentation title
10.00-10.30	Annelies Staessen	CINEMATIC OPEN SPACES OF FLANDERS : spatial planning and the imagination of Flemish open space in the fiction films Bullhead and Kid
10.30-11.00	Malwina Balcerak	Beyond modernization: aestheticization and artification as cultural and visual transformations of socialist housing estates in Poland
11.00-11.30	Sabine Knierbein	Planning, Social Change and Everyday Life

Session 6	Title of the session: Heritage as social action Chair: Federica Scaffidi
Time: 12.00-13.30	Presenter's name	Presentation title
12.00-12.22	Antonella Marlene Milano	The role of civic engagement in preservation and enhancement of ancient transhumance routes (tratturi). The case of Apulia Region in Southern Italy
12.22-12.44	Nufar Avni	The Role of Art and Culture in Contested Cities: Cultural Institutions as Socio-Political Actors in East Jerusalem
12.44-13.08	Federica Scaffidi	Culture, productive heritage and spatial development
13.08-13.30	Maarten Koreman	Cultural festivals in Oldambt: Creating a more positive image for a depopulating rural area.

Session 7	Title of the session: Tourism for spatial development 1 Chair: Katarzyna Leńniewska-Napierała
Time: 14.30-16.00	Presenter's name	Presentation title
14.30-14.52	Joern Harfst	Cultural heritage a driver of sustainable development in peripheral region? Observations from Austria
14.52-15.16	Marta Nalej & Tomasz Napierała	Lignite mining and energy production in Bełchatów industrial region: a threat or opportunity for tourism development?
15.16-15.38	Saara Mildeberg	Cooperation and competition among large industrial sites in heritage tourism
15.38-16.00	Ingfrid Lyngstad	Green structure and presence of landscape image in towns

THU, July 28

Session 9	Title of the session: Tourism for spatial development 2 Chair: TBC
Time: 10.00-11.30	Presenter's name	Presentation title
10.00-10.22	Manca Krošelj	Place-based tourism: an exploration of new interpretations of cultural tourism
10.22-10.44	Nina Stubičar	Spatial analysis as a tool for determining the scope and impact of tourism promotion onto the tourist flow in the cities, example of the City of Ljubljana, Slovenia
10.44-11.08	Karim van Knippenberg	Heritage futures: Reinterpreting the spatial value of heritage in Praga district, Warsaw.
11.08-11.30	Paulo Silva	Traditional commerce, challenges and opportunities from the built heritage perspective: the "Lojas com história" program

Session 10	Title of the session: Tourism for spatial development 2 Chair: Pedro Guimaraes
Time: 12.00-13.30	Presenter's name	Presentation title
12.00-12.30	Elisabete Tomaz	A DIY toolkit to assess the value creation and multiple impacts of culture and tourism activities
12.30-13.00	David Klepej	Response of strategic spatial planning to the growth of urban tourism: Case of Central European cities
13.00-13.30	Pedro Guimaraes	Retail change and gentrification in an overtourism city. The case of Lisbon